Please consider publishing your presentation in the ICES VI Proceedings. You are eligible to publish if you orally presented your paper in an invited, topic-contributed, or contributed session. Discussants and IOL and plenary session presenters may submit a paper for the proceedings, as well. If your paper was withdrawn or not orally presented, it is not eligible for publication in the proceedings.

Authors retain copyright to their individual paper published in the proceedings. Eligible presenters are not prohibited from publishing in the proceedings as well as other publications; authors are advised to consult journal exclusivity agreements for restrictions.

The page limit is 15 pages. This includes keynote addresses, introductory overview lecture papers, invited papers, contributed/topic-contributed papers, discussant papers, end panelist papers, and summary of end panel discussion.
